Sheriff Ed Schroder

Law Enforcement Sector Representative Sheriff Ed Schroder is with the Cass County Sheriff's Office. He is a graduate of Pioneer Jr.-Sr. High School. After high school he attended DePauw University, FBI National Academy, Northwestern University School of Police Staff and Command, and National Sheriff's Institute. He has been married 30 years to Kim Schroder, who is a Pioneer Elementary school counselor. He has 3 children, two of whom are in the law enforcement field as well -- one is a Sheriff's Deputy and the other an ISP Trooper. His third child is at Purdue University.

When asked why he is a part of the Stand UP Cass County Coalition he stated, "I believe in the cooperative efforts of this organization. In my position as the Sheriff of Cass County, I see the impact of drugs and dangerous behaviors on our families and friends on a daily basis. The support and efforts of this group provide resources, guidance and education to reduce the impact of dangerous behaviors."

We appreciate his dedication to our community and the coalition. Thank you, Sheriff, for being such a great supporter.
